ABOUT ME

I am a motivated and creative student interested in business, technology, design, gaming, and sports. Skilled at creating visual content, working on school projects, and learning new digital tools. A dedicated tennis player and gamer with strong discipline, teamwork, focus, and problem-solving skills.

EXPERIENCE

Advertisement Designer

2026- PRESENT

- I design most advertisement drafts and finalized editions such as posters and social media advertisement videos and campaigns, and we use these advertisements to promote Satsang Group of companies which focuses on digitization of SME's and MSME's

Internships

2024-2025

- I had the opportunity to complete two internships that really shaped my understanding of the business world. At AirBlue, an ortho slipper manufacturing company, I got hands-on experience with manufacturing operations, product handling, and the ins and outs of business processes. It was fascinating to see how everything came together to create a product.
- Then, at Easy Investments, I delved into the financial side of things. I learned about various investment services, gained valuable insights into financial awareness, and had the chance to work on my client communication skills. Overall, these internships greatly enhanced my practical knowledge of business operations and finance, giving me a clearer picture of how these industries function.
